

STUDY TREK TO INDIA – SPRING 2017

TRIP
DATES
March 11-19th

This trip is open to all Harvard students

VISIT
Delhi
Agra
Jaipur

- Visit government and private schools
- Meet policy makers, ministers and education leaders
- Visit educational NGO's and meet Change Makers
- Visit global education focused private school
- Compare public versus private education model in India
- Study the implementation of Right to Education Act
- Bollywood Night -Meet and network with local host family and their friends while exploring India through music
- Ride the Delhi metro and visit Delhi's oldest pastry shop
- Visit UNESCO World Heritage Sites: In Agra (Taj Mahal), Jaipur (Amber Fort), Delhi (Humayun's Tomb)

This trip has limited capacity. If you are passionate about education in the developing world and are interested in this trip please email: Sam Sharma @ shs074@mail.harvard.edu or Text/Call/WhatsApp: 860-794-8347

We encourage and welcome students from all Harvard schools to participate in this trip. Please email for cost details.

HARVARD
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
Global Educators-A student Organization at HGSE

1-860-794-8347

shs074@mail.harvard.edu

*Please include in your email a short sentence on:
What you hope to learn and accomplish through this India experience*